Mr. Turner, from the Standing Committee on Economic Policy, presented the Thirtieth Report of the Committee for the session which was read and is as follows:

June 10, 2022

To The Honourable
The Legislative Assembly of
The Province of New Brunswick

Mr. Speaker:

Your Standing Committee on Economic Policy begs leave to submit this, their thirtieth report.

Your Committee met on June 8 and 9, 2022, and had under consideration:

Bill 114, Child and Youth Well-Being Act;

and have agreed to the same with certain amendments.

And your Committee begs leave to make a further report.

(Sgd. :) Greg Turner, M.L.A.
Chair

---

Pursuant to Standing Rule 78.1, Mr. Speaker put the question on the motion deemed to be before the House, that the report be concurred in, and it was resolved in the affirmative.

---

Hon. Mr. Savoie, Government House Leader, announced that it was the intention of government that, with leave, Bill 114 be called for third reading; following which the House would consider an adjournment motion; following which Royal Assent would take place.

It was agreed by unanimous consent that Bill 114 be ordered for third reading forthwith.

The Order being read for third reading of Bill 114, Child and Youth Well-Being Act, a debate arose thereon.

And the debate being ended, and the question being put that Bill 114 be now read a third time, it was resolved in the affirmative.

Accordingly, Bill 114, Child and Youth Well-Being Act, was read a third time and passed.

Hon. Mr. Savoie moved, seconded by the Honourable the Premier:

THAT when the Assembly adjourns at the end of this sitting day, it stand adjourned until Tuesday, October 4, 2022, provided always that if it appears to the satisfaction of Mr. Speaker, after consultation with the Government, that the public interest requires that the House should meet at an earlier time during the adjournment, Mr. Speaker may give notice that he is so satisfied and in such notice shall state a time at which the House shall meet, and thereupon the House shall meet at the time so stated and shall transact its business as if it has been duly adjourned to that time, and

THAT in the event of Mr. Speaker being unable to act owing to illness or other cause, either of the Deputy Speakers shall act in his stead for the purpose of this order.

And the question being put, a debate ensued.

And the debate being ended, and the question being put on the motion, it was resolved in the affirmative.

Her Honour, the Lieutenant-Governor, was announced, and having been bidden to enter, took her seat in the chair upon the Throne.

Mr. Speaker addressed Her Honour as follows:
